C O N T E S T

ASB Storytelling Award

The ASB Storytelling Award seeks to recognize and showcase excellence in scholastic broadcasting. Entries are judged against a high standard of excellence and not against other entries. Judges consist of a group of broadcast teachers and professionals from across the United States. Any news, feature, or sports story created between August 1, 2015 and April 15, 2016 by students currently in grades 9 through 12 at any high school in the United States may be entered. Each school may submit up to three entries. For more information or to see past winners visit: <http://scholasticbroadcasting.com/storytelling-award-1/>

SUMMER CAMPS

ACADEMY OF SCHOLASTIC BROADCASTING STUDENT CAMP

The goal of this five day camp is to take a student's visual storytelling skills to the next level with a fast-paced lineup of fun and challenging audio and video exercises. Experienced teachers provide one-on-one instruction and constructive feedback. Each lesson is followed by hands-on applications, field work, and by the end of the week, a complete broadcast. Camp is held in Kansas City and runs from July 24-28. Cost is $575. For more information check out the website: <http://scholasticbroadcasting.com/student-camp/>

MEDIANOW STL SUMMER CAMP

The workshop for 2016 is set for a Sunday kick-off, June 26 at 2:01 p.m. through the Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, June 29. You'll be released just before lunchtime so you can celebrate your accomplishments off-campus with family and friends. There will be on-campus housing available and lots of time for mind-melting, brain-bursting, crazy good times in between. We will have an awards ceremony at 10:15 a.m. on Wednesday, June 29. Parents, Guardians and Advisers are welcome and encouraged to attend to see what all your campers have accomplished in our short time together. You. Will. Be. Amazed.
